“ I met Eddie when he was just a kid at Janet n Clayton’s wedding reception. (Richards-Wanda’s husbands little sister). At the purple elephant bar on commercial on the south side. It was actually named Woodalls Bar, my family owned it and I couldn’t believe how purple it was it was great though but I nick-named it the purple elephant just cause. He had a little bit of an attitude problem that night and was being a well you know. Anyway the kid needed a tiny little attitude adjustment with a bit of respect for his elders / which he got and he was a changed kid aftetwords. Always had a smile on his face and showed respect and maturity there after. As far as I know he stayed that way, he never got in real trouble, he even cut his hair (shocked me) and seems to Me that He turned out to be a good man. With a respectful easy going attitude who always had a smile on his face it was down right catching no matter what ur mood was. I am Wanda’ cousin (Richards) Debi Mele Stehle and I love Wanda and her family dearly they are Part of my family as much as me and my family have become part of hers. So I loved Eddie like a little cousin too I will miss his smile his easy going attitude his ability to make you laugh no Matter what kind of mood you were in Just refusing to accept a bad attitude from you. Don’t know where he learned that. Lol For Eddies family I am truly so sorry for your loss. I hope you will please accept my sincere condolences. I pray you will find comfort and peace in time. I I will be setting out side this evening and in his HONOR I WILL HAVE AN RC AND MOON PIE and I’ll say to him this ones for you Eddie. Thank goodness he like good stuff it could have been Barbacoa and Big Red yuck lol. Thanks for that. Eddie We will all miss you bud. RIP
