“ Tita, you are one of my good friends momma. I spent many days and nights sleeping over at your house. I'm sure I probably could've even lived there if I needed to. You made your home a special place for me. You saw me grow from a teenager to an adult, and I'll always be grateful for meeting a wonderful woman like you! You are very much missed and loved. I'm sorry I hadn't visited in a while, but Ashley knows every time I saw her I asked for you. I hope you're resting easy.

“ Grateful , thankful and blessed to have had you in my life not forced but by choice You wanted me when no one else did. I am here living the best life I would of never had because of you! Forever my mommy. and I can not wait for the day I'm with you again. -chichi girl

“ My second mother - you taught me to be strong and never give up. You will always be a pillar in my life and your memory I'll show through my actions. Thank you for never giving up on all of us, for clothing us, breaking bread with us, giving us those hard heart to heart talks that were never easy but you told us like it was so we could get up & keep going - thank you for helping my mom raise us & teaching us how to conduct ourselves. I thank you for always being there for everyone and our children, for being our shoulder to cry on, for being our counselor, for giving us all the shirt off your back and taking care of us all like we were all your very own. For this I am eternally grateful - I love you and appreciate you giving us your love back wholeheartedly and unconditionally and never showing you were weary - you did this like second nature. My most fondest memories are the ones where we laughed so hard we cried.....I pray God give us all peace that surpasses all understanding as you would have wanted it to be.

“ Your smile was always so beautiful. I remember you being one of the first I met when I came into the family and you welcomed me in with open arms. Everyday that has passed and will pass is so unreal and hard to accept that your gone. You will forever be missed and your precense will always be with us spiritually! This isn't goodbye Tile this is “see you later”- From Jonathan, Sarahi and the boys.

“ What a good and generous woman you were. I've always enjoyed spending time with you and your family. You have always been very welcoming towards me and you've always felt like family. I am at peace knowing now that you are with our Heavenly Father and are now at rest. One day we will see each other again. Rest in Paradise.
